The AVERAGE wedding today is $28,700

WOW ... or should I say OUCH!

And that is just “average”! Unbelievably there are an incredible number of weddings today ranging between $50,000 and $100,000! Some cost even more!

I’m sorry – but that is just INSANE! Even IF you have unlimited funds, there are so many better ways to spend those wedding dollars! So, if you were to pay only $5,000 for your wedding you would immediately have enough money to:

- Make a down payment for your new home.
- Pay off those college loans that will plague you for the next 15 years.
- Pay CASH for a new car.
- Fill your home with beautiful, paid-for furniture!

... OR ...

If you merely deposited the $23,700 savings in a bank (at say 5%) you would accumulate over $102,000 at the end of 30 years.

Thinking about it like that – means that your “average wedding” (costing $28,700) will in fact COST YOU OVER that $102,000 in the 30-year long run!!

And as soon as this recession or downward trend is over, 5% will be considered a LOW return on your investments, meaning your could make 8%, 10% or even more – (8% on that same $23,700 saved by keeping your wedding expenses at $5,000 or less, would be a minimum of $110,000 in your account only TWENTY YEARS from now! And in 30 years (when you might seriously think about retirement) you would have over $238,000.

Please tell me that you don’t really mean to spend $238,000 for your wedding!

As the author of several wedding related books, including “Bridal Profiles” - (a resource book for bridal consultants planning your wedding on anything LESS THAN a budget! – I’m going to share with you secrets, tips and great ideas from my more than 35 years of experience in the wedding industry!

I not only know how the business works, I know how to get it done at a fraction of the cost!

As the Franchisor in the 1980’s of An International World of Weddings, Inc., I taught and wrote the manuals for planning traditional Christian weddings as well as for Hindu, Buddhist, Jewish and Moslem weddings.

Planning International weddings was one of my favorite pastimes and I loved teaching others how to plan and successfully fulfill the wedding needs of all their brides! (By the way, in case you’re wondering, I have another book in the works for those of you interested in opening your own wedding business. Someone’s making a ton of money from those that don’t follow the advice I give in “10000DollarWedding.Com” — and it might as well be you.)

A LOT of money is, and has been, made in the wedding industry, but my book shows you how to keep that money in YOUR pocket, instead of giving it to your wedding planner and related wedding vendors (e.g., caterers, cake decorators, bridal shops, photographers, florists). You can have a wonderful wedding and save thousands by using just a few of the ideas in my book.

In fact, you could have the “Workshop For Brides” 2010 Wedding Of The Year! In the early 1980’s, the Robb Report Magazine asked me to share my expertise for planning an “over the top” wedding, so I put together the plan for an Antebellum / Mississippi Queen wedding costing over $977,000! That’s right – I wrote the plan for a MILLION DOLLAR wedding! And that was nearly 30 years ago! Imagine what that wedding would cost in today’s dollars!

In 2000, I was surprised as one of Oprah’s Angels for co-founding a non-profit organization and in 2005, my daughter, Anna Orr and myself were named two of the 25 Trendsetters of the Year in Modern Bride Magazine. Today, I spend my days researching and writing on several of my favorite subjects! Weddings being my first love! OH, and did I mention – Weddings by Francine? I am also a freelance wedding photographer in the beautiful Pacific Northwest, headquartered in Portland, Oregon (please visit my other website at www.weddingsbyfrancine.com for a great deal on wedding photography services).

Now, you might wonder why I think you should have a little background regarding my credentials and why you should buy MY book instead of another you have looked at while surfing today ... I have to tell you that I have scoured the internet looking at all the “ways to save money” on your wedding – and couldn’t believe some of the things I have seen! Some of the nonsense out there is absolutely unbelievable.

I’m certainly not going to tell you that there aren’t any “other” good books out there for planning your wonderful wedding or for saving a ton of money, but I can tell you that I haven’t found anyone with my background willing to give you an iron-clad, 60 day, 100% money back guarantee REGARDLESS HOW MUCH YOU SAVE, if you aren’t completely satisfied with my book, “10000DollarWedding.Com – How to PlanThe Wedding of Your Dreams for Under $10,000. If you don’t save hundreds, IF YOU DON’T SAVE THOUSANDS of dollars by using a few of the tips you find in my book, then I don’t want to keep your money!
